POLICY

ACF AND AICUF UNIT

1. Social Responsibility and Service Commitment

- The AICUF Unit at St. Francis College shall engage in social outreach programs to address issues such as poverty, education, environmental sustainability, and social justice.
- Members are expected to actively participate in community service initiatives, including volunteering in orphanages, old-age homes, and slum development projects.
- The unit will collaborate with NGOs, religious organizations, and government bodies to maximize social impact.

2. Leadership and Student Empowerment

- AICUF will organize leadership development programs, including workshops on ethics, public speaking, and advocacy.
- Members will be encouraged to take up leadership roles and participate in decision-making processes.
- Special training will be provided to equip students with skills in social entrepreneurship and sustainable development.

3. Faith-Based Activities and Spiritual Growth

- Regular Bible study sessions, retreats, and spiritual enrichment programs will be conducted to strengthen faith-based values.
- The unit will facilitate interfaith dialogues to foster peace, understanding, and communal harmony.
- Members will be encouraged to actively participate in prayer groups, Mass services, and religious celebrations within the college and local parishes.

4. Ethical Conduct and Inclusivity

- AICUF at St. Francis College adheres to a strict code of ethical behavior, promoting justice, equality, and human dignity.
- Members must demonstrate respect, compassion, and non-discrimination towards all individuals, regardless of caste, religion, gender, or social background.
- Any form of harassment, abuse, or discrimination will result in immediate disciplinary action.

5. Sustainable and Environmental Initiatives

- AICUF will actively participate in environmental conservation programs, such as afforestation drives, clean-up campaigns, and awareness sessions on climate change.
- The unit will promote eco-friendly practices on campus, including waste management, water conservation, and reduction of plastic usage.

6. Governance and Accountability

- The AICUF Unit shall operate under a democratically elected leadership committee, ensuring transparency and equal representation.
- All decisions, event plans, and financial transactions shall be recorded and presented during periodic reviews.
- The unit shall maintain a strong coordination mechanism with the college administration and AICUF State/National Councils for policy alignment.

7. Collaboration and Networking

- The unit will engage in joint programs with other AICUF units across the country to exchange ideas and best practices.
- Opportunities will be provided for students to attend national and international AICUF events, seminars, and leadership summits.
- Partnerships with church bodies, humanitarian organizations, and local communities will be prioritized to strengthen outreach and social impact.
