SFC Women's Cell

A Women's Cell, established in educational institutions, workplaces, or community organizations, is a dedicated body or committee designed to address issues related to women's welfare, safety, and empowerment. Its primary objective is to create an environment where women feel supported and are given the resources they need to thrive, both personally and professionally.

Policy:

- To provide a safe and supportive environment for women within the institution.
- To promote gender equality and eliminate discrimination.
- To address issues such as harassment, abuse, or any form of inequality.
- To empower women through education, awareness, and leadership development.
